Chief Peter Sloly has set up a briefing with the Mayor tomorrow after Council. CMO should be added to this briefing if a coordinated approach is to be reached.

CMO is speaking to Kim this afternoon. There is a coordinated approach well under way. We will be briefing the Mayors Office this week once we have the info we need.

After having raised $3+ million through the crowdfunding initiative, the truckers are starting to reach out to hotels to book stays of at least 30 days. Steve Ball spoke to this guy and he basically laid out the plan, which is basically that they will leave their trucks in place, chain them together, and attempt to block all accesses to the city.

What is our level of preparedness to respond to this, should it go on for many weeks or months? Who is our lead in responding and presumably liaising with the federal authorities?

It would be helpful if we could have quick call either later today or tomorrow to share intel.

Merci!

See note below - I spoke to this guy and he gave me more info about the plan to shut down access to the city.

Hello

I'm reaching out for assistance and support from your associated membership constituents to see if they would like to offer any of their hotels for a 100% occupancy rate of a minimum of 30 days to 90 days for our truckers convoy which is approximately 10,000 members of our fleet that will be staying in Ottawa.

The hotels must be within a 15 minute commute to the Ottawa parliament complexes in the Ottawa core and have working culinary kitchens / services available amongst other amenities.

The Canada United truckers Convoy would like to extend its offering to all the hotels in this region. this is a peaceful convoy of hard working individuals from across this country to show our government that its not okay to discriminate and enforce unlawful mandates to all Canadians.

The current count of transportation individuals are estimated at 10,000 to 15,000 thousand members who will be attending for a duration of 30 to 90 days from the day of January 29th,2022 to February 27th, 2022 extending to April 1st, 2022

This convoy and its members are under a strict code of conduct set out by its core team in a lawful manner and will be adhered to in all aspects of attending & occupying any space that is owned, rented or donated in any and all aspects.

Canada Unity and its associate truckers convoy would like open a negotiating offer to any hotels who wish to do so.

Thank you
